The “hill”

A 4 degree incline, representing the uphill battle of many for respect in the workplace and justice for the disenfranchised.

4 degrees

A literal approach to the “hill”, creating an opportunity to rally and own the battle.

Welcome

If you are facing sexual harassment in the workplace, Anita is here to help.

Here you can gather emails, screenshots, photos, and keep time-stamped notes all in one place. Well-organized documentation supports your case, and could help you get the justice you deserve.
